

Services

SES Companies takes the hassle out of merchandise management by providing the highest level of experience, professionalism, and resources while delivering results. SES Companies can assist your organization by providing the following services.

Licensed & Official Merchandise

SES Companies has established firm relationships with Nike, Adidas, Reebok, Puma, and others to ensure professional representation of licensed merchandise tailored to each event. SES Companies has the resources to create an official line of event specific merchandise for distribution and sales at corresponding events.

On-Site Management

Whether facility management or on-site vending services, SES Companies has the resources, staffing, experience, and equipment to maximize sales and coverage anywhere in the United States.

e-Commerce Solutions

SES Companies builds, manages, and provides fulfillment and customer service for web store properties including USSoccerStore.com, the official online store of the United States Soccer Federation. SES Companies offers the highest level technological integration, customer service, and competitive pricing to maintain customer loyalty.

Promotion

SES Companies is ready to work with your organization to provide custom logo goods in the areas of apparel, headwear, accessories, novelties, and more.